STUDENT COOPERATIVE

The United States Postal Service Office of Inspector General (OIG) is seeking students enrolled in a college/university to fill positions within the OIG functional area of Investigations. The candidates will provide a wide range of technical and administrative support to the Investigations program. This includes gathering data and conducting limited inquiries regarding individual case assignments and assisting in case development; including; surveillance, forensic analysis, researching, assembling, compiling, and tabulating information for agent’s use in developing search and arrest warrants, and further assisting agents in evaluating evidence for administrative, civil and criminal hearing or trails. This program provides an opportunity for students to gain valuable and relevant paid work experience related to their field of study, while continuing their education, and providing a benefit to the OIG. The Student Cooperative Program is available year-round (January – December) for continuous employment while in school. Students must be available and committed to work a minimum of 10 continuous weeks or one academic semester on a part-time basis. The OIG mission is to provide reports to the Postal Service Executives, Governors and Congress to help the Postal Service maximize revenues (approximately $70 billion a year), minimize costs, and prevent and detect fraud, waste, abuse and mismanagement.

ELIGIBILITY QUALIFICATIONS

- Students must be enrolled full or part-time in an accredited college or university, classified or academically ranked by semester hours as a Sophomore, Junior, Senior or a Graduate student.
- A letter from the college or university advisor verifying enrollment stating the student’s good standing, college transcripts, current level of education, and the number of completed semester hours must be submitted with the application.

EVALUATION FACTORS

- Please write a short narrative (1-2 pages) about why you are interested in working for the United States Postal Service Office of Inspector General.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Ability to pass a physical examination, drug screening, and background investigation
- Ability to obtain/maintain a government-issued credit card
- May require some travel
- Students will sign a term agreement

TO BE CONSIDERED, APPLICANTS MUST SUBMIT:

- Resume, letter from advisor, and a short narrative
- Applicants must be available for entire semester or 10 continuous weeks and be able to work a minimum of 10-15 hours per week
- Applicants claiming Veteran’s Preference must attach a copy of member 4 copy (only) of Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (Form DD214) or other proof of eligibility if claiming 10-point veteran’s preference. Veterans must submit a copy of a letter dated within the last 12 months from the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Department of Defense certifying receipt of compensation for a service-connected disability of 30% or more
