This announcement provides a reassignment/promotion opportunity for the position of Personnel Security Manager on the Mission Support, Personnel Security Team located in Arlington, VA. Bring your skills and voice to our team!

Duties

The successful candidate will be able to supervise the activities of staff engaged in the formulation and application of personnel security policies, procedures, and systems involving the loyalty and reliability of people; or processes against criminal, terrorist, or hostile intelligence activities. The successful candidate will be responsible for providing management, oversight, and guidance to the personnel security team, who are responsible for providing support to employees and contractors in-processing effort.

The USPS OIG uses a Pay Banding system, which is equivalent to the Federal GS scale. Grade and salary determinations will be made based upon a candidate's education and professional experience.

This position is being advertised at the Manager Band level, equivalent to a GS-14. The salary range for this position is $149,185 - $191,931. The salary figures include locality pay.

Please note that the duties and responsibilities associated with this position may vary based upon the agency's needs at the time of hire. The following description of major duties and responsibilities is only intended to give applicants a general overview of the expectations.

- Provides authoritative advisory service and/or develops authoritative policy interpretations in the areas of personnel security.

- Represents the Office of the Inspector General in meetings with high-level officials from the United States Postal Service, other agencies, vendors, and members of external organizations.
- Responsible for the coordination, tracking, processing, and oversight of employee and contractor suitability.
- Supports company management in understanding U.S. Government suitability processes and requirements specific to USPS, as well as the fingerprint submission process.
- Manages the workload, schedule, and performance of the personnel security team.
- Leads inquiries regarding concerns with employee suitability and conduct.
- Provides quality control functions by reviewing submissions for completeness and accuracy.
- Tracks the progress of submitted documentation with the customer.
- Develops a training and indoctrination program for the personnel security team.
- Maintains a firm understanding of customer contractual requirements, rules, and regulations.
- Update databases and spreadsheets related to assigned tasks.
- Identifies and resolves, as applicable, unique issues where no policy exists, recommending innovative actions to address new needs and/or issues.
